
John Garvey

As you have witnessed historical moments in the space industry development what are some things you wish had done before? Or differently 7 votes

No response available.

How do you recommend learning the "lessons learned" before encountering the same issues in the past? .. 6 votes

No response available.

for a rocket startup...how much equity do you suggest giving to investors to remain viable?.. 6 votes

No response available.

Why didn't you join SpaceX in the early days? 6 votes

No response available.

..How much seed funding do you think is necessary for a rocket startup? 6 votes

No response available.

Space X seems to be following your development approach. How optimistic are you that Starship/Superheavy will succeed? 5 votes

No response available.

What keeps you going forward in the rocket business? Where do you ultimately want to be? 5 votes

No response available.

Why stick to LOX? 3 votes

No response available.

Do you believe there are enough engineers and technicians coming up in the ranks to fill the demand for the R&D and growth of the aerospace industry to meet the bold timelines that were discussed earlier for space exploration? 3 votes

No response available.

what are the minimum viable pieces/people necessary to start a rocket company from the ground? 3 votes

No response available.

why LIQUID Ox instead of solid? 2 votes

No response available.

I'm looking into starting my own rocket startup. Any advice for a newbie like me? 2 votes

No response available.

How do you transport such a big rocker from CSULB to Mojave? What's the cost? 2 votes

No response available.

You are looking at Q&A Snapshot created with Social Q&A. Social Q&A is a simple and powerful way to know what questions your audience has and which are most important to the entire group.